

Violin Lessons From A Youth Orchestra Violinist With 12 Years of Experience

Are you a beginning or intermediate violinist looking for guidance learning violin technique and repertoire? I offer 1-on-1 lessons with personalized exercises and guidance to help you focus your practice:

Where

- At my house (or online)
- At your house (+transportation fee)
 - If you have music stands and a room

Who

Greetings, I'm Alex Metzger: a high school senior going into college

What To Bring To The First Lesson

- A functional instrument (violin + bow + shoulder rest + case)
- Sheet music that you're currently working on or have just finished

My Experience

- Started with the Danish Suzuki Institute—summer camps in Poland, masterclasses with Danish concertmasters, performances in Tivoli and the Royal Albert Hall, and lessons through the Suzuki method.
- 12 years of practicing the violin—currently studying with the former Seattle Symphony Concertmaster, Maria Larionoff.
- 5 years in the Seattle Youth Symphony Orchestras—performing with the top orchestra as a 1st violinist. Participated in Marrowstone Music Festival.
- Theoretical Knowledge—taken classes at the Seattle Conservatory of Music (audition technique + chamber music) and AP Music Theory.
- Actively engaged in the community—concertmaster of the top school orchestra and pit orchestra for 4 years of high school.
- 3 years teaching elementary school students—volunteering with the Seattle Music Partners.
